Appendix 2

Cell line tsDC will be made available subject to the following conditions:

1. The materials shall at all times remain the property of the depositor.
2. It is to be used for research purposes only, and for the intended purpose stated on this form.
3. Not to be offered for sale or be utilised in commercial processes involved in the preparation for sale of any biological material. For the avoidance of doubt, the cells will not be used for any commercial purpose whatsoever, including commercially-sponsored academic research and in particular in which any rights are granted to the commercial sponsor or other third party.
4. Not to be distributed to third parties.
5. If the cell line is referred to in any publication, then correct reference will be made to the work of the original depositor and no alteration will be made to its ECACC title or acronym.
6. In the event that the recipient makes or observes any new discovery, improvement or invention ("Invention") relating to the cell line or as a direct result of the intended purpose then the recipient will bring this to the attention of the depositor. The recipient shall not make or seek to make actual commercial gain from such an invention, nor make any patent application or secure any other proprietary rights to legally protect any such invention except with the prior consent of the depositor.
7. It is understood that neither ECACC nor its depositors accept any liability whatsoever in connection with the handling or use of the cell line.
